

The Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

21 JAN 1977

NOTE FOR: Executive Secretary

SUBJECT: Rockefeller Commission Files

As custodian of the Agency's Rockefeller Commission files you have the authority to release documents therein which are the subject of Freedom of Information Act or Congressional requests or which may be relevant to discovery requests in litigation involving the Agency. Prior to release of course, you should follow internal procedures for the coordination and review of such documents by components which have an interest in them. Feel free to raise any concerns with me which you think are not satisfactorily resolved in the internal review process.

STAT of my staff shall have direct access to the files. Any reorganization of the files or material therein should be undertaken only after consultation with her.

E. H. Knoche
